Always next year!

Thanks to those of you who attended the Tribute Tuesday concerts this year and helped to make them great events!

A special thanks to our sponsors of the events:

- The Park Foundation of Waukesha
- Citizens Bank
- Meijer
- Friends of the Waukesha Public Library/Waukesha Reads

Tribute Tuesday would not be possible without these partnerships!

We are already starting our planning for next year. What groups would you like to see for Tribute Tuesday?

Let us know!

Are you ready to Oktoberfest?

Wurst Beer Biathlon

A biathlon is defined as “an athletic contest consisting of two different events.” Running and drinking a beer are sorta athletic disciplines, so why not combine them?

Sign up today to participate in the Wurst Beer Biathlon on Saturday, September 23 as part of Oktoberfest.

All runners receive a pint of beer or soda at the finish line and kids run free with a paid adult. There is an award for the best lederhosen, but you gotta wear it while you run!

Coyote Activity

Coyotes sightings in and around the area are quite common and are rarely a cause for concern. Particularly during this time of year, when adolescent (i.e. teenager) coyotes are starting to disperse from their birth territory and explore new areas.

If you know coyotes are present in your area, it is always important to keep a close eye on your pet when outside, regardless of their size. Be sure not to feed urban wildlife in your yards or local parks.
