Riverside Rhythms Returns

WAUKESHA, Wis. – The City of Waukesha is excited to announce the return of Riverside Rhythms to the City’s summer concert line-up. Riverside Rhythms kick-offs the summer season with a special 125th Anniversary edition on Wed., June 16 from 11:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. New this year, the event will take place on Riverfront Street, under the Historic Bus Depot in Downtown Waukesha at Friedman Dr.

“We are very excited to announce the return of Riverside Rhythms as we celebrate our 125th Anniversary,” said Mayor Reilly. “Riverside Rhythms is a great addition to our summer concerts as it offers an opportunity for fun and entertainment downtown over lunch.”

On June 16, head downtown to Riverfront Street for the music of Dean Richard, food and coffee from Mama D’s, giveaways and more to celebrate the City’s 125th Anniversary. Attendees will be able to take photos with life-size cutouts of famous people from Waukesha, submit memories for inclusion in the City’s 125th Anniversary time capsule, receive a 125th Anniversary collector postcard, have a chance to win Downtown Waukesha shirts, and more.

Riverside Rhythms continues every Wed., June 16 through Aug. 25, 11:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. and features a variety of music and food selections. For the complete line-up, please visit the City of Waukesha’s website (<https://waukesha-wi.gov/1744/Riverside-Rhythms-Lunch-Concert-Series>)
